TEN PERSONS ARE RESCUED BY LIFE LINE

Coast Guard Saves Crew of Wrecked Schooner.

YOUNG GIRL RESCUED IN BUOY

Live Savers Didn't Know She Was Aboard Until the Buoy Was Pulled In—Great Gale Causes Many Disasters Along the Coast.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—Ten persons, two of whom are women, were rescued from death by Captain Etheridge and his crew of life savers at the Nags Head, N. C., station early Sunday, when the four-masted schooner Louis Bossert was blown ashore by the heavy northeast gale that has prevailed along the Virginia-Carolina coast for the past 48 hours. The schooner was bound from New York to Wigins, S. C., for cargo and was swept out of her course by the storm.

Shortly after midnight she ran on the beach and was discovered in the breakers by a coast guard from the Nags Head station.

On account of the high seas, no attempt was made to launch the boats. A line was shot over the schooner and the surfmen pulled it in they were surprised to find a young woman among its passengers. She is the daughter of Captain Fletcher, of the wrecked craft. Then one by one the seven members of the schooner's crew were hauled to safety through the seas and on the last trip Captain Fletcher came in.

Reports from Nags Head over the government's coast wires say the schooner is high on the shore but seemingly in good condition. A wrecking tug went to the scene.

The Louis Bossert is owned by Louis Rossert & Bro., of New York. She is of 610 gross tons tonnage and was built at Bath, Maine, in 1904.

The sea is still high at Nags Head, but the wind has dropped to 22 miles.

Schooner Laura Sprague Ashore.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—The small schooner Laura L. Sprague, Captain Pierce, of Marble Head, Mass., ran ashore off Ocracoke Inlet, N. C., Sunday. She is of 564 net tonnage, was built in 1890 in Portland, Me., and carries a crew of six or seven men. Late advices are that life savers have succeeded in getting on shore all the schooner's crew and are caring for the men at the station. The fact that assistance had been asked for the schooner is taken to indicate that her condition is not yet hopeless. The wind is moderating along the coast, but a very heavy fog came in from the sea.

Searching for Missing Barge.

Norfolk, Va., April 9.—The naval tug potomac left the Norfolk navy yard Sunday to search for the navy coal barge which, with ten men on board, broke loose last Monday from the collier Caesar, which had been towing the barge up the coast. The barge was lost at sea, being last seen Thursday. The collier abarenda followed the Potomac out Sunday night and it is expected the cruiser Cleveland left the Norfolk navy yard Monday to join in the search. The cruiser St. Louis, which is coming up the coast, also may assist in the search.

Saved from the Sea.

New York, April 9.—Nearly every vessel that has arrived from southern ports during the last week has brought some story of marine disaster wrought by the cyclone off Hatteras during the last ten days of March. The Blucher, arriving Sunday from West Indian ports, was no exception. Standing in disconsolate groups about her decks were a luckless thirteen which the liner had saved from their foundering bark, the Gulfport, as the vessel was on the verge of going down. The rescue was witnessed by Speaker Joseph G. Cannon and several others of the congregational party, who were on board the Blucher. It was a weary band, which the lifeboat of the liner took from the water logged wreck. They were near starvation, as for nearly a week they had had nothing to live on except a few water-soaked biscuits.

Washington, April 9—The navy department has received a telegram from the commander of the collier Caesar dated at Fernandina, Fla., Monday stating that the naval coal Barge No. 1, which has been lost at sea since April 1, has been picked up, and is being towed into Mayport, at the mouth of the St. Johns river, Florida.

ASSASSIN KILLS GEN. BARRILAS

Ex-President of Guatemala Assassinated in Mexico.

City of Mexico, Mexico, April 9.—General Manuel Lizandro Barrillas, ex-president of Guatemala, was assassinated Sunday evening at 7 p. m. as he sat in a Guadaluses street car. He was on his way to supper when, as the car stopped, a young man, a little over 17 years of age, climbed aboard, and rushing to the general, stabbed him twice, the first blow severing the jugular vein, the second cutting his face. He died instantly.

The assassin was captured. He gave his name as Jose Estrada, and his home as Ocos, Guatemala.

The members of the Guatemalan colony, many of whom formerly lived in Ocos, know of such name, and do not recognize the youth, who is doubtless a paid assassin.

The body of the ex-president, along with the assassin, was taken to police headquarters. The body of the general will probably be turned over to the Guatemalan colony for burial after an autopay.

Ex-President Barrillas was generally considered as strongly opposed to the present government of Guatemala. He was 62 years of age, and was a strong possibility for the next presidency of the country.

Millionaire is Fatally Hurt.

Chattanooga, Tenn., April 9.—Robert Scholze, millionaire soap manufacturer and tanner, was thrown from his buggy and received injuries which will certainly prove fatal within a few hours. Hemorrhage of the brain was caused by the force of the fall and the physicians pronounce his recovery impossible. Mr. Scholze came here as a young man from Saxony, without money, and started a small tannery which rapidly grew to its present demensions. He died from his injuries Monday morning.

Will Be General Strike.

New York, April 9.—It is stated that the strike of the Brotherhood of Painters for the new wage scale of $4 a day for plain painters and $4.50 a day for decorative painters which has been ordered notwithstanding the arbitration agreement, is to be extended to all the contractors in other cities throughout the country of members of the master painters' association and the interior decorators and cabinet makers associations.

Killed by a Grave Digger.

Huntsville, Ala., April 9.—Alex McDonald, a white man, was shot and probably fatally wounded in Maple Hill Cemetery by Boiling Bynum, a negro grave digger. The trouble came up over a trivial affair. Bynum was drunk, and after the shooting he came to town and surrendered to the police. McDonald was shot through the neck, the bullet ranging downward and lodging against a shoulder blade.

Jealous Negro Kills Three.

Houston, Tex., April 9.—News has been received here that Sonny Jones, a jealous negro, shot and mortally wounded his wife near Wharton and he then killed his mother and Harry Higgins, who had started to town after a doctor. He fired twice at Sam Brawley, on whose place the shooting occurred, but missed him. Jones was later captured. The weapon used was a double barreled shotgun.

Aided Confederate Prisoners.

Sandusky, O., April 9.—William Hamilton, who as clerk of the Island Queen, is credited with having been one of the five men who during the civil war gave papers of release to 700 confederate prisoners held on Johnson's Island, died Sunday, aged 71 years.

FALL OF PUERTO CORTEZ IS REPORTED

Steamer Reaches Mobile With Information

THAT THE DEVOTED CITY

Is Now In the Hands of the Revolutionists—Nicaraguan Army Also Takes Ceiba Without a Shot Being Fired, and Are Now in Command.

Mobile, Ala., April 9.—Puerto Cortez, one of the principal ports of Honduras, and which Mobile is more or less identified through fruit interests, has fallen and is now in the hands of the Nicaraguans.

The Nicaraguan army and navy is active and is now moving on Ceiba, the other port of Honduras, with a view of capturing that place.

This was contained in a private message received Monday morning by the Thacker Steamship company, and was in the nature of a long distance message from New Orleans, stating that a cablegram had been received from Puerto Barrios to that effect. The details are lacking, but it only confirms the fears that have been entertained in shipping circles here for the past week that something unusual had ocurred owing to the non-arrival of steamers due from both Cortez and Ceiba. Local fruit importers were at a loss to account for the delay of their steamers, which are even today overdue according to the schedule, but the fall of the Honduran port partly explains matters.

The message received simply said that Puerto Cortez had fallen and was in hih hands of the Nicaraguans and that the army and navy of that country had moved on Ceiba to capture that place. Whether the capture was after a fight with the Honduran army or the result of surrender, is not known, but, according to last reports received here from Cortez, an attack from the navy and army of Nicaragua was anticipated and preparations were being made.

Breastworks were being thrown up, and antiquated field pieces were being placed in position. The Honduran navy, all of which is combined in the small gunboat Ta Tumbla, was then at Cortez.

The Honduran railroad and cable have been in control of the Nicaraguan army since the capture of Tegucigalpa, the capital, and news from the seat of hostilities for the past two weeks has been obtained by mail boat or via cable from Puerto Barrios, Guatemala.

All cable messages are carried from Cortez by boat to Puerto Barrios, and requires about seven hours by sail boat.

Full details of Puerto Cortez's capture are expected to reach here on steamers now due which are expected to report any hour.

The fall of Cortez caused much excitement in local shipping circles.

Mobile, Ala., April 9.—Advices received here Monday from Commander William F. Fullam, of the U. S. gunboat Marietta, via steamer Coomba, just arrived say that Ceiba was taken on the evening of April 3 by the Nicaraguan army and is now in command of commander of chief, Astrada and General Manuel Leeta, the latter a brother of Policarpo Bonilla. Ceiba was taken without a shot being fired. After taking Ceiba, the Nicaraguan forces left for Puerto Cortez on board the gunboat Onetappe, a gasoline launch and a small gunboat. They were preceeded to Cortez by the Marietta, to protect American interests.

It had been agreed between Commander Estrado of the Nicaraguan forces, and Commander Fullam of the Marietta, that Puerto Cortez should not be bombarded.

Cable advices received here say that Puerto Cortez is now in the hands of the Nicaraguans, and it is believed that Commander in Chief Ordenaz, in charge of Honduras' forces at Puerto Cortez surrendered, although it was said by passengers arriving here on the steamer Colombia from Ceiba that General Ordenaz had refused to surrender and would fight to the last ditch.

In a message to the master of the Colombia, Commander Fullam, of the Marietta, says that the Nicaragua forces had promised not to bombard Cortez and that he believed there would be no resistance. He said that the Nicaraguans claimed that a new regime would be established on the Honduras coast immediately and that both sides to the controversy understand that it is for their interest to let foreigners alone.

IN SHADOW OF GALLOWS.

Mrs. Aggie Myers Will Soon Know Her Fate.

Kansas City, April 9.—The final action in the case of Mrs. Aggie Myers and Frank Holtman, under sentence of death for the unusually cold blooded murder here Mayy 11, 1906, of the woman's husband, Clarence Myers, an expressman, will be taken by Governor Folk at Jefferson City.

The brutality of the murder, the calm demeanor of Mrs. Myer from the time of her arrest, nearly three years ago, and the strenuous efforts through petitions and appeals, to save the woman from the gallows, have made the case one of the most noted in Missouri criminal history. The woman had been divorced before she married Myers. After her marriage to Myers she fell in love with Holtman, who lived in Higginsville, Mo., her former home. They conspired to murder Myers so they could get married, and when all arrangements were completed, she sent Holtman money to come to Kansas City.

She admitted him to the house after midnight, and directed him to the bedroom where Myers lay asleep.

Myers adose in bed when Holtman struck him with a club, made from the butt end of a billiard cue. The men clenched and wrestled into another room where the woman came to Holtman's aid. Mrs. Myers hit her husband with a bed slat and stabbed him with a pair of scissors as they wrestled and as he cried to her: "Help me, honey; help me," she ran to a bureau drawer, took out his razor and slashed him nine times across the face, throat and chest.

Holtman's hat and shirt were blood soaked. She gave him her husband's shirt and hat and he went away. She stayed alone in the house with the body the remainder of the night and washed up blood and burned her night gown. At daylight she called for help, and said negro burglars had committed the crime.

Holtman was caught at Walla Walla, Wash. He confessed. Mrs. Myers has never confessed. She denounces Holtman as a liar, declaring she is innocent. She is 26 years of age, and Holtman 24.

STATE AND DEFENSE RESTS.

Attorney Delmas Begins His Summing Up Address.

New York, April 9—With the opening of the Thaw trial Monday, District Attorney Jerome said he could only ask the court formally not to confirm the report of the commission in lunacy. Justice Fitzgerald overruled the motion and ordered the trial to proceed.

Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton was called as a witness.

District Attorney Jerome objected to Dr. Hamilton testifying in sur-rebuttal, saying it was a re-opening of the entire case. He was sustained, and Dr. Hamilton was excused.

Later in the morning both the state and defense rested.

Judge Fitzgerald ordered the jury locked up from now on.

The court took a recess until 2 o'clock.

Mr. Delmas began his summing up address at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon.

Webster Regains Consciousness.

Kansas City, April 9.—T. C. Webster, the aged man who was taken unconscious from an eastbound train here a week ago recovered sufficiently Sunday night to say his home is at Horse Shoe Bend, Idaho, and that he has a wife and three children there. He was on his way to Gainesville, Ga., when stricken.

TROLLEY CARS ARE DESTROYED IN FIRE

Car Barn and Plant Gutted In Early Morning Blaze.

FIREMAN DEAD; MANY INJURED

The Loss, According to Latest Reports, Will Reach One and One-Half Million Dollars—Three Hundred Cars Destroyed.

New York, April 9.—Fire early on Monday morning destroyed the combined car barn and power plant of the New York City Railway company, covering the greater part of the block bounded by Lenox avenue and One Hundred and Forty-seventh street, and Seventh avenue. The loss will reach $1,500,000.

More than 300 cars were burned, and the plant, except for the electrical department, was destroyed.

One fireman, Captain J. Ryan, was killed under a falling wayy, and half a dozen firemen and others were more or less seriously injured. The injured are:

Frederick J. Leopold, assistant engine foreman; William Symes, fireman; Anthony Morse, car inspector; Thomas Francis, spectator; James Cannon, laborer; Mrs. Mary Lawson, overcome by smoke.

None of the injured is in a dangerous condition.

The fire started in the big repair room where a large number of cars were stored, and spead through the whole building with great rapidity.

Captain Ryan's engine, with his crew and the crews of two engines, were working in an alley outside the building hen the explosion on the fourth floor ripped out the west wall, sending tons of brick down on the firemen, carrying down the fire escapes on the rear of a row of flat houses, and burying half a dozen of the firemen in the ruins.

A hundred men with picks and shovels at once set to work to dig their comrades out of the ruins while scores of others turned their attention to the flat houses to which the fire had spread. Captain Ryan was the first man taken from the heap of debris by the rescuers. He was horribly crushed but still alive when taken out and laid on the ground in the driving rain. There a priest knelt by his side and administered the last sacraments of the church a moment before Ryan died.

One by one the other firemen were dug out and hurried away to hospitals. In the meantime the fire in the car barn had practically burned itself out and the flat houses in the rear had been damaged to the extent of $25,000.

Three hundred open or summer cars valued at $5,000 each, which had been stored in the barn, were destroyed.

Village Threatened by Forest Fire.

New York, April 9.—The villages of Springs and Amagansett, L. I., were threatened Sunday by a forest fire, which burned over a thousand acres of what is said to be valuable timber lands. The loss which is estimated in the thousands of dollars, is divided among about 50 land owners. The bells in the school houses were rung calling out the towns' people and in the Presbyterian church in Amagansett the congregation was dismissed and sent out to fight the fire. The villages were saved by back burning a strip five miles long.

Paris, April 9.—Minister of Education Briand was accused of interfering with the formation of cultural associations by M. Henri Deabour, president of the association of religious liberty in an address Sunday on "popery of the republic."

PRESIDENT HARRIS APPOINTS COMMITTEE

COMMITTEE IS A GOOD ONE

The Committee is Composed of Those Who Are Among the Best in the State, and the People Will Feel Sure of Fair and Just Treatment.

Tallahassee, April 9.—President Hunt Harris of the Senate today appointed Senators Neel, Crill and Baker on the part of that branch of the Legislature as members of the committee under the resolutions adopted to visit the State University at Gainesville as well as all the other educational institutions of the state.

The committee is composed of three of the leading members of the State, and the people may feel assured that their interests will be fairly and properly resented. Senator Crill was formerly State Treasurer. He is now a banker of Palatka, being president of the East Florida Savings and Trust Company, and is regarded as one of the most conservative men in the State.

Senators Neel and Baker are also prominent citizens of their respective sections.

Obtained All They Asked For.

Seattle, Wash., April 9.—W. B. Hoggatt, governor of Alaska, reached Seattle Sunday from Washington. "We obtained almost everything we asked of the last session of congress," he said. "The people of Alaska are well satisfied with the government's treatment of them. This cry for a territorial form of government comes from political discontent. To have this change in rule would mean an increase of taxation of 25 cents per capita, and a small population together with the fact that the country is only partly developed, do not warrant this burden. We can very well afford to go along as we are despite the howl of politicians."

Japanese Consul Called Home.

San Francisco, April 9.—The Call says that consul Uyeno, who represents Japan in this city has been called home by foreign Minister Hayashi, to assist in framing a new policy for the future relations of the empire with the United States. It is said that Consul Uyeno will sail for Japan on Wednesday on the liner Hong Kong.

White, organizer of the Woodmen's Circle, an adjunct of the Woodmen of the World, has been working for the past two or three weeks in this city in the matter of establishing a lodge here, and has been quite successful, having succeeded in securing a goodly number of names, among whom are some of the best people in Gainesville.

"BLUE DEVILS"

Get Rid of Indigestion and Things Will Look Bright and Joyous.

Even in the present era of prosperity and good times everything appears black to those people who are suffering wretchedly from some form of indigestion. Where digestion is quick, complete and easy there is a joyous and hopeful outlook, but indigestion causes depression.

The want of a safe, effective cause for sick headache, indigestion and stomach troubles, was always felt until the prescription known as Mi-o-na stomach tablets was put up in popular form and proved its invarible success in the many forms of indigestion.

After a few days' use of Mi-o-na stomach tablets the headache, dizzy feeling, drowsiness, bad taste in the mouth, coated tongue, nervouseness, sleeplessness, distress after eating—all these symptoms of a weak stomach—will disappear and perfect digestion and a good skin will show that the vital machinery is once more running smoothly.

Mi-o-na is to be taken before each meal and it will stimulate the secretive and digestive juice and strengthen the whole of he digestive system so that the unpleasant full feeling will be absent and indigestion prevented.

Mi-o-na stomach tablets are sold only in a neat metal box convenient for the vestpocket and cost 50 cents. J. W. McCollum has seen so many cures made by Mi-o-na stomach tablets that he gives a guarantee with every box that the money will be refunded if the remedy fails to give satisfaction.

Prominent Ocala Visitor.

W. W Clyatt, a business man of Ocala, was in the city for a short time Monday. He is a brother of Lee J. Clyatt in this city, with whom he is interested in the stock business in Levy county, and was en route home from Long Pond, where he has been to look after his interests. Mr. Clyatt states that the continued drought in that section has proved very detrimental to the cattle industry, as the meadows are very dry, and cows are dying in the bog in an endeavor to get water.

DEATH OF GOOD WOMAN.

Mrs. G. W. McCall of High Springs, Much Beloved, Passed Away.

High Springs, April 9.—The death of Mrs. G. W. McCall, wife of the banker of this place, is one of the saddest events our town has realized in a long while. It is sad because she was taken from the enjoyment of so much to make her life ideally happy and she contributed so much to the happiness of others. She was young, the bride of a year with a devoted husband who was congenial in every respect, and her week-old boy is one to fill the heart of any mother with pride and joy. She possessed the fondest love of her own family, being the youngest and the object of their solicitude since the death of her mother ten years ago. Her husband's family were deeply attached to her, and a large circle of friends attested their devotion by untiring efforts in her behalf during her illness, and their heart felt sorrow in her death.

But it is a glorious consolation to her friends and family to know that for her Heaven possessed far greater attraction than all these earthly ties, and she willingly turned from them to anticipation of her home beyond the skies. She dwelt upon its joys in the few intervals of consciousness she had during her illness.

In attendance upon her death-bed and funeral, from out of town, were her brothers, Mr. S. J. Brown of Douglas, Ga., and Mr. A. B. Brown of Fort Pierce, Fla. Of her husband's family were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. M. McCall, his sister, Mrs. Albert Zipperer, his brother, Mr. Luther McCall, and cousin, Mr. Cleveland Horne, all of Jasper, Fla., and her friends, Miss Ethel Underwood of Jacksonville, and Misses Alice and Mabel Cato of Alachua.

Rev B. A Geiger, pastor of the Baptist church in Jasper, conducted the funeral services. His remarks were very touching and eugolistic Having been her childhood's pastor, he knew of her exemplary life, and her hope of immortality.

The deceased leaves a father, Mr. H. J. Brown of Cades, S. C., and a brother, Mr. L. Brown of Texas, who were unable to come on account of sickness. Besides the above mentioned relatives, she leaves four sisters, Mrs. Anna Sewall and Mrs. H. C. Stevens of High Springs, Mrs. A. A. Ford of Vero, Fla., and Mrs. J. W. Thomas of Scranton, S. C.

Tired Nervous Women Make Unhappy Homes

MRS. NELLIE MAKHAM

MRS. GEO. A. JAMES

A nervous irritable woman, often on the verge of hysterics, is a source of misery to everyone who comes under her influence, and unhappy and miserable herself.

Such women not only drive husbands from home but are wholly unfit to govern children.

The ills of women act like a fire brand upon the nerves, consequently seven-tenths of the nervous prostration, nervous despondency, the "blues", sleeplessness, and nervous irritability of women arise from some organic derangement.

Do you experience fits of depression with restlessness alternating with extreme irritability? Do you suffer from pains in the abdominal region, backache, bearing-down pains, nervous dyspepsia, sleeplessness, and almost continually cross and snappy? If so, your nerves are in a shattered condition and you are threatened with nervous prostration.

Proof is monumental that nothing in the world is better for nervous troubles of women than Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs. Thousands and thousands of women can testify to this fact.

Mrs. Nellie Makham, of 151 Morgan St., Buffalo, N. Y., writes:—

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was a wreck from nervous prostration. I suffered so I did not care what became of me, and my family despaired of my recovery. Physicians failed to help me. I was urged to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I want to tell you that it has entirely cured me. I think it is the finest medicine on earth and I am recommending it to all my friends and acquaintances.

Mrs. Geo. A. James, a life long resident of Fredonia, N. Y., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I was in a terribly run down condition and had nervous prostration caused by female trouble, in fact I had not been well since my children were born. This condition worked on my nerves and I was irritable and miserable. I had tried many remedies without getting much help but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound brought me back to health and strength. It has also carried me safely through the Change of Life. I cannot too strongly recommend your medicine."

Mrs. Pinkham's Invitation to Women

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to communicate promptly with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. From the symptoms given, the trouble may be located and the quickest and surest way of recovery advised. Out of her vast volume of experience in treating female ills Mrs. Pinkham probably has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs, contains no narcotics or harmful drugs and today holds the record for the largest number of actual cures of female diseases of any medicine the world has ever known, and thousands of voluntary testimonials are on file in the laboratory at Lynn, Mass., which testify to its wonderful value.

ITY ELECTION WAS CLOSE ONE

...Interested Manifested, and Ticket Conisderably Split.

BOTH SIDES MADE POINTS

Administration Ticket Retained Mayor and Two Councilmen, but Remainder of Ticket Was Won by Municipal Club—Vote a Close One.

Notwithstanding that there was manifested in the city election Tuesday the deepest interest that has been manifested in Gainesville for many years, and notwithstanding that both sides worked with all possibile alertness and energy possible to elect their ticket, the election was marked for its quietness and the orderly and systematic manner in which it was conducted. Those who had congregated about the polls with the expectation of witnessing some excitement were disappointed, and aside from the good-natured joking remarks which passed between the supporters of the two tickets, the election was on par with ordinary.

A heavy vote was polled, however, as both sides exerted every effort to bring the voters to the polls. Carriages and other vehicles were in demand, and were kept constantly on the go between the voting-place in the City Hall and various sections of the city. Before the noon hour, when the inspectors took a recess of a few moments for lunch, about three hundred votes had been polled. Both sides claimed a majority of these, but the close and constant and conservative observers declared up to that hour, as far as they could judge, the winners were about even.

A Lively Campaign.

The campaign which closed with the election of Tuesday has been one of the liveliest, hardest fought and most interesting the city has ever known. The Administration ticket on the one hand, the Municipal Club upon the other, both announced their platforms sometime ago, and which in purport appeared very similar. Tickets were placed in the field by both organizations, and then the fun began. Meeting after meeting was held, each voter was on the alert attending the session of his own club, and these meetings to say the least lent spice to the campaign and kept the interest at boiling heat. A large amount of literature was also printed and circulated through the press, the mails and otherwise, and these have kept the voter busy between the meetings—that is, if he took the time to read them all.

Returning to election day. The day opened up clear, but the wind was high during the day, making the weather very disagreeable. This had no tendency to prevent a good attendance at the polls, however, and a large crowd congregated about the voting-place during the day. It was plainly evident that the majority of those present and were deeply interested in the outcome of the ballot, and the sentiment on the exterior seemed to be about evenly divided.

Immediately after the closing of the polls the inspectors, comprising D. A. Robertson, clerk, F. X. Miller, W. L. Hill and A. S. Taylor, began the count, which lasted until a late hour. The result was as follows:

For Mayor—S. M. Davis, 237; W. R. Thomas, 320.

For Marshal—Chas. Pinkoson, 268; W. T. Arnow, 278.

For Clerk and Treasurer—J. M. Dell, [illegible].

For Tax Assessor—W. M. Bradford, [illegible].

For Tax Collector—T. B. Ellis, 439.

A NEWBERRY MARRIAGE.

Two Popular Young People United. Other Notes of Interest.

Newberry, April 9.—A quiet but happy marriage occurred in this city Sunday morning at half-past 10 o'clock, when Mr. R. H. Harkness of Tampa and Miss Sarah Williams of this city were married at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Tucker, Rev. E. T. Allen of the Baptist church officiating.

The contracting parties are well known, having many friends, all of whom wish them much joy and happiness.

Mr. and Mrs. Harkness left Sunday afternoon for Tampa, where they will visit the former's parents a few days, and from there they will return to Kendricks, where they will make their future home.

Code B. Weeks made a flying trip to Gainesville last Thursday "on business." That he was successful is quite evident, as he returned Thursday evening with his bride, surprising his many friends here, who extend to Mr. and Mrs. Weeks a host of good wishes for a long and happy married life.

Mr. and Mrs. Peyton S. Fortson and little son, Peyton S. Jr., drove over to Gainesville last Wednesday, returning Thursday.

J. S. Van Winkle was a visitor here Sunday. He registered at the Travelers' Hotel.

Master Burke Methvin left Tuesday for St. Augustine, where he will visit his sister, Miss Lillie Belle, who is attending school there.

Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Frazee left Saturday for Brooksville, where they will spend a few days visiting friends and relatives.

R. H. Harkness of Orange Lake was here last week shaking hands with his many friends.

Dr. E. T. Allen returned Sunday from DeLand, where he visited his family. Mrs. Allen and son came up Wednesday and will visit here awhile.

Judge Henderson visited Gainesville Friday, returning the same day.

Your cough is only in the throat and does not trouble you now, don't think that it needs no attention. When it has not had much of a start is the time to check it. Rev. I. W. Martin Tendered Call.

Knoxville, Tenn., April 9.—Rev. Isaac W. Martin, of Pulaski, Tenn., has been tendered call to the pastorate of the First Baptist church at Sweetwater, Tenn. It is believed he will accept.

PANAMA CANAL READY IN 1915.

That Is the Prediction Made by John F. Stevens.

Colon, April 8.—John F. Stevens, formerly chief engineer of the Panama canal, was given a splendid send-off previous to his departure for the United States. The reception was held on Pier No. 11, Cristobal. W. G. Bierd, general manager of the Panama railroad acted as chairman.

Mr. Stevens, in a speech, modestly gave John F. Wallace, whom he succeeded as chief engineer, the credit for the organization of the work. This Mr. Stevens declared, he had modified only when necessary. He said the preparations deemed necessary two years ago were underestimated, and though the working force had since been doubled, they still were inadequate. But now, he declared, the machinery had been completed, homes had been provided for 250,000 persons, there were railroad facilities for handling over a million yards of earth monthly and the organization was so advanced that it was possible to carry on the work in both wet and dry seasons. He said he firmly believed that the canal would be opened in January, 1915. He did not seek the position and was leaving it of his own volition.

Mr. Stevens asked his loyal friends not to take their complaints to Washington, but to make them to Major Goethals, the new chairman of the canal commission, for whom he solicited the same loyalty as had been given him.

Just before sailing at noon Sunday Mr. Stevens was presented with a two-volume testimonialy, signed by American and other employees of the canal expressing their loyalty to him. The employees also subscribed for three gifts intended to be handed down by Mr. Stevens to his three sons.

EUREKA!

Yes, I Have Found It At Last.

Found what? Why, that Chamberlain's Salve cures eczema and all manner of itching of the skin. I have been afflicted for many years with skin disease. I had to get up three or four times every night and wash with cold water to allay the terrible itching, but since using this salve in December, 1905, the itching has stopped and has not troubled me.—ELDER JOHN T. Four Blind Tigers Caught.

West Point, Ga., April 9.—The police of Lanett, Ala., ferreted out and raided four blind tigers in full blast which evidently had been doing business for some time. Since West Point became a dry town, 15 months ago, and Lanett already being dry, the officers of the "twin cities" have been kept busy keeping down the illegal sale of whisky. The trial of these last offenders will be held in Lanett.

Don't Put Off

For tomorrow what you can do today. If you put off buying a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, when that pain comes you won't have any. Buy a bottle today. A positive cure for rheumatism, burns, cuts, sprains, contracted muscles, etc. T. S Graham, Prairie Grove, Ark., writes: "I wish to thank you for the good results I received from Snow Liniment. It positively cured me of rheumatism after others had failed." Sold by W. M. Johnson.

A Sad Case.

A Chicago physician was one day called to attend a sick child in a "shabby genteel" quarter of the Windy City.

"Madam," said the doctor to the mother, "you should send this child into the country for several weeks each summer."

"I am sorry to say, doctor," responded the woman, "that we are not rich enough to do that."

"Then," suggested the physician, "have her sent by the fresh air fund."

"Oh, doctor," exclaimed the woman, "we are not poor enough!"—Harper's Weekly.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN THE WEST END

Two Men Dead and One Man Seriously Injured as a Result.

WOMAN IN THE SCRAP

She Went to Assistance of Her Husband, Who Was Fighting, With a Gun. Woman Knocked Down, Pistol Secured, and Antagonist Shot.

Meager information comes from the West End of a double tragedy which occurred in that section Saturday night which cost two men their lives, serious injury to another, from the result of which he may die, and also injury to a woman of lees importance.

While nothing authentic can be learned, the tragedies were actual occurrences, the rumors being verified from parties who came to Gainesville Tuesday.

At what is known as Mine No. 25, near Frankland, Joe Reed, a negro, became involved in a difficulty with another man, and with a long, ugly-looking knife, almost disemboweled him. After the man had been so severely cut he secured a hammer, returned, and beat his antagonist to death. This man it is understood is in a critical condition, and is not expected to survive his wounds.

The other tragedy is reported from Frankland section also, and that occurred on Saturday night. In this tragedy two men and a woman were involved. From the best information obtainable, it appears that a man by the name of Richard Wiley and another whose name could not be learned were fighting. The man's wife ran to the assistance of her husband with a pistol, when Wiley turned his attention to her, knocking her down twice. In the meantime the woman's husband secured the gun and shot Wiley between the eyes, killing him instantly.

Both the man and his wife made their escape, and have not been apprehended.

Regards Cuban Question as Serious.

New York, April 9.—Former Ambassador Andrew D. White, who returned Sunday on the steamship Blucher, after a cruise in the Caribbean sea, said of Cuba, which he visited: "I regard the Cuban question as more serious than our Philippine problem. Cuba is a great negro state, incapable of self government, and everything that I saw while there strengthens my conviction that Cuba as a state would be a curse to us—simply a vast rotten borough with a few wealthy men in the midst of a negro population incompetent to govern themselves, to say nothing of aiding the government of the United States. If Cuba were made a state of the union, it would, in my opinion, rapidly become a curse to itself and the nation."

Abandoned on Uninhabitated Island.

New Bedford, Mass., April 9.—A complaint that three men of the crew of the New Bedford whaling schooner John R. Manta were abandoned on the uninhabitated island of Saanta Luzia, in the Cape Verde group, and that but for the timely arrival of a small fishing vessels they would have starved to death, has been received by shipping commissioner, Mr. Henry C. Hathaway, of this city, through the shipping commissioner at Mobile, Ala. The Mobile officials reported that he had received the complaint from two men who had reached that port on board the schooner Ralph Lee. The men assert that while they were on shore liberty at Santa Luzia the schooner sailed away.

The Word "Blizzard."

"Blizzard" is an American word, says the Chicago News. The date and circumstances of its origin are obscure. Though it was first commonly used by the American newspapers as a good word for a snow squall in the winter of 1880-81, it is said to have been known to the west in that sense nearly twenty years earlier. From an English writer of 1834 this sentence is quoted: "A gentleman at dinner asked me for a toast, and, supposing he meant to have some fun at my expense, I concluded to go ahead and give him and his likes a blizzard." Here blizzard might well mean a metaphorical volley, which would square with the evidence of a correspondent of an American paper who recalled that in the forties a blizzard was a particular kind of volley—a rattling one, fired in quick succession, as opposed to a simultaneous "broadside"—affected by sportsmen on the Atlantic coast who shot at flights of migratory birds from behind screens.

A Savage's Sense of Duty.

Although the Australian aborigine has his vendetta, it is not always revenge that he seeks. Darwin tells of a native servant of a west Australian magistrate who went one day to his master, saying that one of his wives had died. He must go away therefore to a distant tribe and spear a woman to satisfy his sense of duty to the dead woman. "If you do, I'll send you to prison for life," said his master. For a year the man hung about, looking wretched and ill and complaining that he could neither eat nor sleep, as the spirit of his wife haunted him because he had not taken another life for hers. At last he disappeared. A year later he returned in high condition. There was no legal evidence against him, but it was known that he had gone to a distant tribe, had speared a woman to death and so, as he thought, appeased the spirit of his departed wife.

Leigh Hunt.

This famous Englishman has two distinct claims to fame. Not only was he a brilliant poet, essayist and critic, but much that we know of Keats, Shelley, Lamb, Byron, Moore, Coleridge, Dickens and Carlyle has been derived from the knowledge of these celebrities which Hunt gave to the world. Possessing a happy spirit and genuine scholarship, Leigh Hunt's writings sparkle with wit and cleverness, while his translations are among the choicest of their kind. His pecuniary difficulties undoubtedly prevented Hunt giving us his best at times, but after he was granted a pension amounting in all to £320 per annum the improved comfort and augmented leisure enabled him to make his mark on English literature with essays of remarkable power.—Pearson's Weekly.

New York's First Graveyard.

The first graveyard in New York city was established in the year 1633. It was situated on the west side of what is now Broadway above Morris street. The oldest grave of which there is a record is that of a child, marked with a sandstone slab, with a skull, crossbones and winged hour glass and the following inscription:

W. C.
Here Lyes the Body
Of Richard Churcher
Son Of William
Churcher Who
Died The 5 Of April
1651 Of Age 5 Years
And 5 Months.

The Way of Scientific Truth.

Many prophets and righteous men, many thinkers and idealists, have wasted their lives in running after scientific truth. Never run after scientific truth. Stand where you are, and in a few years scientific truth will run after you. Continue to eat pork, and sooner or later the doctors will say that pork is the only food that is perfectly digestible. Continue to drink port, and sooner or later a man will arise in medical circles who will prove that port is the only certain safeguard against gout. The specialist may have told you to take your children to the seaside, but if you are only long enough in packing he will very likely have discovered that sea air is poison before you start. The best authorities may have told you, if your chest is weak, to make your bed in your back garden for a year. They may be telling you to grow your tulips in your bedroom the next year.—G. K. Chesterton in Illustrated London News.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Eased His Conscience.

An amusing story is related of Johns Hopkins. Honesty was evidently one of the fundamental traits of his character. On one occasion he was sent by his mother to borrow a flatiron of a neighbor. The good neighbor gave him the flatiron and at the same time offered him a piece of pie.

"No, thank you. I don't want any pie," said the red faced boy as he started home. Halfway there the pie and his conscience were too much for him. He wheeled about and knocked again at the neighbor's door, his face redder than ever. "I told you a story," he explained; "I did want that pie."

A Last Resort.

Stomach and Liver Trouble Cured.

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup cures stomach and liver trouble as it aids digestion, and stimulates the liver and bowels without irritating these organs like pills and ordinary cathartics. It cures indigestion and sick headache and chronic constipation. Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup does not nauseate or gripe and is mild and pleasant to take. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Her Opportunity.

Naybor—I saw your wife leaving home in something of a hurry this morning. Marryat—Yes; she's going into the shopping district to contract about $50 worth of debts. Naybor—My! Did she tell you that? Marryat—No, but I foolishly told her last night that I had that much left in bank.—Philadelphia Press.

Whooping Cough.

ROSSINI'S WATCH.

A Stranger Who Knew More About It Than the Composer.

Rossini, the composer, possessed a magnificent watch that his king had presented to him. It was a repeater and also a musical watch, for it played the maestro's prayer from "Moses In Egypt." But not until after he had owned it for six years did he understand it fully. Rossini took a boyish delight in showing it and making it play, and one day he did so while in a cafe.

A stranger who sat near was attracted by the music, and just as Rossini was going to put it back in his pocket he stepped up to him and said, "You have a very valuable watch there, sir, but I'll wager that you do not know all its capabilities."

Rossini, much surprised, said: "I have carried it now for six years in honor of my king. It has never varied one minute; it repeats the hour, quarter hour, tells the minutes and the day of the month and plays, as you have just heard, the prayer from 'Moses.'"

"And yet I insist," said the stranger smilingly, "that you do not know your watch wholly. I'll wager anything you like—your watch against 10,000 francs!"

"Oh, well, if you have 10,000 francs too many I'll take the bet," cried Rossini. "But now give me the proof of your assertion."

"Very well. The watch plays another piece of yours, master, and contains your portrait besides."

Speechless, Rossini saw that when the stranger touched a spring a lid flew back, disclosing his portrait, while at the same time it played "Di Tanti Palpiti," from "Tancred."

"Good gracious," he exclaimed, looking at his lost watch, "it is true! You have won the wager. But how could I know?"

The stranger laughed heartily and handed him back his treasure, saying:

"I am the maker of this watch, Michel Plivee. The wager was made in fun, but I am delighted that you, the great maestro, take such pleasure in my work."

Wiles of Animals.

The panther on the plains of Patagonia gets as near a herd of guanacos as it can, then lies down behind a bush on its back. It puts one paw up in the air, then another, then the third and fourth and after a bit all four at once. That seems curious to the guanacos, and they come close to investigate. Up jumps the panther and lights on the nearest one's back and breaks its neck. A fox up in Nova Scotia comes down to the bay of Fundy and goes jumping along the beach a couple of rods and back again, rising on its hind legs at each about face and waving its big tail in the air. The little flock of four or five Canada geese out on the water begin to wonder what can be the matter with the fox. They swim up into the shallow water to investigate, when in dashes the fox and grabs one by the neck. The men have taken advantage of this trick and have trained dogs to do as the fox does. For lack of a dog men themselves have ambled about on their hands and knees to attract the birds.

A Calendar.

To the modern world a calendar is merely a harmless necessary reminder of weeks and days to be hung up on New Year's day and consulted in dating letters throughout the year. It has no such mournful sound as "calendarium" had for the ancient Romans. The original calendar of their times was the money lender's account book, so called because interest was due from the debtor on the calends, or first day of each month. Seneca speaks of calendar as a word invented outside the course of nature on account of human greed.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of test."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

The President has been presented with a baseball pass. Now then, muckrakers, do your worst!

The Fernandina Hotel lot has been selected as the site for the proposed government building in that city.

The fact that Mr. Richard Mansfield has declared for Roosevelt for a third term is a sign that the third term idea is rather unpopular.

Sixteen million feet of lumber was shipped from Fernandina during the month of March. It's a record they may well feel proud of.

Chicago dispatches say that a change is needed to fill up the hole made when $178,000 was abstracted from the city treasury not long ago.

"Missouri stands by the mule" says a Georgia exchange. But if she doesn't want "to be shown" she will stand near the head of the mule.

The Republicans of the Texas Legislature have unanimously agreed in caucus that they are for Roosevelt for a third term. There are only two of them.

If the earthquake was sent upon San Francisco for its sins, why didn't it destroy Abe Ruef and Schmitz instead of so many acres of improved real estate?

No wonder the Pennsylvania Republican ring beat the reformers in that State with the amount of boodle money gushing in the building of the new capitol gave them.

King Edward says he will not play golf with any young lady not twenty years old. Some young bridge player must have made several grand slams when King Edward was playing for a pound a point.

This is the season for the sporting page. There is where the news lies. From the reports sent out, it is difficult to see how any team in the league can lose a game, except through some accident or catastrophe.

Over 800,000 boxes of oranges will have been shipped from the Pinellas peninsula when the present season ends. This means that more than a million dollars have changed hands this season as a result of the orange crop.

Lakeland will soon have a new opera house, one of which she will be proud. Judging from the plans that have been passed upon it would be an ornament to a city larger than Lakeland. It is to be built of artificial stone, the lower floor being fitted up as store rooms.

Richmond is raising a monument to Edgar Allen Poe that will cost $5,000. It is to be doubted if the living Poe ever saw this much money. Was it not the mother of Burns that remarked when the dead poet's admirers were raising a monument, that he had asked bread and they gave him a stone? It is well to make amends in the presence of love and appreciation.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

If, as the railroad presidents and trust magnates are declaring, there is a period of business depression ahead, who is to blame for it? It must be charged to Republican management and policy, for that party has had full control of all departments of the government for the past ten years and if there is any needed legislation, or any bad laws that ought to have been repealed or amended, there has been ample time and opportunity to attend to it.

If monopolies of transporation and manufacturing have been encouraged and created, until of their own excesses they have defeated their own prosperity the Republican party is alone to blame.

If the tariff has fostered trusts, that are gorged on the profits of an exploited people, so that reaction and business depression are possible, who is to blame?

If the cost of living is inordinately high and workingmen are striking for higher wages, the reason is apparent and must be charged to the Republican policy of trust protection as the chief cause.

If the goose has been killed that has laid the golden eggs, by stuffing her with prosperity that was only intended for trusts and corporations to feed on, who is to blame?

If the wheat farmer finds that the price of his product is low and protected-trust prices are high, so that his profit is little, if any, will he blame his own skill as a husbandman and a kindly nature that has produced good crops or the tariff that has fostered trusts which are protected in charging increased profits and for which the Republican party is responsible?

There is one thing certain—that any prosperity that the farmer, the business man, or the workingman has enjoyed, who receives no protection or benefit from tariff or other monopoly, must work out his own salvation, for no system can be contrived that will help everyone without everyone paying his own share or even more than his fair share.

So while the heathen of Wall Street rage and the railroad magnates prophesy vain things, the much greater number of people must be satisfied with no help or protection from the Republican party who claims all the avenues of prosperity as of its own making. It behooves such not to be flustered with the croakings of the trust and corporation birds of evil omen, but to protect themselves by such political action as will abolish monopoly and install equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

Success declares him to be a pretty poor sort of a man who loses courage and fears to face the world just because he has made a mistake or a slip somewhere, because his business has failed, because his property has been swept away by some general disaster, or because of other trouble impossible for him to avert. This is the test of your manhood; how much is there left in you when everything outside is lost? If you lie down, throw up your hands, and acknowledge yourself worsted, there is not much in you. But if, with heart undaunted and face turned forward, you refuse to give up or lose faith in yourself, if you scorn to beat a retreat, you will show that the man left in you is bigger than your loss, and larger than any defeat.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Since the publication of the Harriman letter of 1905 exposing some of the corporation magnates contributions to the Roosevelt campaign fund, it is much easier to understand why the Administration has been so liberal with the balance in the United States Treasury to help out the Wall Street frenzied financiers.

The Fernandina Record, edited by J. O. LaFontisee, comes to our table in a brand new form. It is a credit to the press of the State of Florida, and the citizens of Fernandina should not fail to give Editor LaFontisee their hearty support. Success to the editor and to The Record.

T. J. L. Brown, president of the Florida State Fair, will apply to the Legislature for an appropriation for the next two years. Much good has been derived from these annual fairs and we believe that the entire State has been benefited.

"I have been so busily occupied that I have had neither time nor inclination to even think about politics, State or National," remarked Senator Forsker a few days since. Has the Senator no fear of being assigned to the Ananias club?

Monday was the opening day for this season of the South Atlantic Baseball League. Jacksonville will represent this State in the national game this year with a strong team. We hope to see them capture the pennant this year.

Perhaps one reason the railroads object to lower passenger rates is that they will have more damage suits to pay, because they will carry and kill more people.

The Ponce de Leon celebration at St. Augustine was a grand success in every particular.

DOUBLE TRAGEDY IN THE WEST END

Two Men Dead and One Man Seriously Injured as a Result.

WOMAN IN THE SCRAP

She Went to Assistance of Her Husband, Who Was Fighting, With a Gun. Woman Knocked Down, Pistol Secured, and Antagonist Shot.

Meager information comes from the West End of a double tragedy which occurred in that section Saturday night which cost two men their lives, serious injury to another, from the result of which he may die, and also injury to a woman of lers importance.

While nothing authentic can be learned, the tragedies were actual occurrences, the rumors being verified from parties who came to Gainesville Tuesday.

At what is known as Mine No. 25, near Frankland, Joe Reed, a negro, became involved in a difficulty with another man, and with a long, ugly-looking knife, almost disemboweled him. After the man had been so severely cut he secured a hammer, returned, and beat his antagonist to death. This man it is understood is in a critical condition, and is not expected to survive his wounds.

The other tragedy is reported from Frankland section also, and that occurred on Saturday night. In this tragedy two men and a woman were involved. From the best information obtainable, it appears that a man by the name of Richard Wiley and another whose name could not be learned were fighting. The man's wife ran to the assistance of her husband with a pistol, when Wiley turned his attention to her, knocking her down twice. In the meantime the woman's husband secured the gun and shot Wiley between the eyes, killing him instantly.

Both the man and his wife made their escape, and have not been apprehended.

Regards Cuban Question as Serious.

New York, April 9.—Former Ambassador Andrew D. White, who returned Sunday on the steamship Blucher, after a cruise in the Caribbean sea, said of Cuba, which he visited: "I regard the Cuban question as more serious than our Philippine problem. Cuba is a great negro state, incapable of self government, and everything that I saw while there strengthens my convicition that Cuba as a state would be a curse to us—simply a vast rotten borough with a few wealthy men in the midst of a negro population incompetent to govern themselves, to say nothing of aiding the government of the United States. If Cuba were made a state of the union, it would, in my opinion, rapidly become a curse to itself and the nation."

Abandoned on Uninhabitated Island.

New Bedford, Mass., April 9.—A complaint that three men of the crew of the New Bedford whaling schooner John R. Manta were abandoned on the uninhabitated island of Saanta Luzia, in the Cape Verde group, and that but for the timely arrival of a small fishing vessels they would have starved to death, has been received by shipping commissioner, Mr. Henry C. Hathaway, of this city, through the shipping commissioner at Mobile, Ala. The Mobile officials reported that he had received the complaint from two men who had reached that port on board the schooner Ralph Lee. The men assert that while they were on shore liberty at Santa Luzia the schooner sailed away.

The Word "Blizzard."

"Blizzard" is an American word, says the Chicago News. The date and circumstances of its origin are obscure. Though it was first commonly used by the American newspapers as a good word for a snow squall in the winter of 1880-81, it is said to have been known to the west in that sense nearly twenty years earlier. From an English writer of 1834 this sentence is quoted: "A gentleman at dinner asked me for a toast, and, supposing he meant to have some fun at my expense, I concluded to go ahead and give him and his likes a blizzard." Here blizzard might well mean a metaphorical volley, which would square with the evidence of a correspondent of an American paper who recalled that in the forties a blizzard was a particular kind of volley—a rattling one, fired in quick succession, as opposed to a simultaneous "broadside"—affected by sportsmen on the Atlantic coast who shot at flights of migratory birds from behind screens.

A Savage's Sense of Duty.

Although the Australian aborigine has his vendetta, it is not always revenge that he seeks. Darwin tells of a native servant of a west Australian magistrate who went one day to his master, saying that one of his wives had died. He must go away therefore to a distant tribe and spear a woman to satisfy his sense of duty to the dead woman. "If you do, I'll send you to prison for life," said his master. For a year the man hung about, looking wretched and ill and complaining that he could neither eat nor sleep, as the spirit of his wife haunted him because he had not taken another life for hers. At last he disappeared. A year later he returned in high condition. There was no legal evidence against him, but it was known that he had gone to a distant tribe, had speared a woman to death and so, as he thought, appeased the spirit of his departed wife.

Leigh Hunt.

This famous Englishman has two distinct claims to fame. Not only was he a brilliant poet, essayist and critic, but much that we know of Keats, Shelley, Lamb, Byron, Moore, Coleridge, Dickens and Carlyle has been derived from the knowledge of these celebrities which Hunt gave to the world. Possessing a happy spirit and genuine scholarship, Leigh Hunt's writings sparkle with wit and cleverness, while his translations are among the choicest of their kind. His pecuniary difficulties undoubtedly prevented Hunt giving us his best at times, but after he was granted a pension amounting in all to £320 per annum the improved comfort and augmented leisure enabled him to make his mark on English literature with essays of remarkable power.—Pearson's Weekly.

New York's First Graveyard.

The first graveyard in New York city was established in the year 1633. It was situated on the west side of what is now Broadway above Morris street. The oldest grave of which there is a record is that of a child, marked with a sandstone slab, with a skull, crossbones and winged hour glass and the following inscription:

W. C.
Here Lyes the Body
Of Richard Church-
Er Son Of Willia-
M Churcher Who
Died The 5 Of April
1681 Of Age 5 Years

Gentle and Effective.

The Way of Scientific Truth.

Many prophets and righteous men, many thinkers and idealists, have wasted their lives in running after scientific truth. Never run after scientifice truth. Stand where you are, and in a few years scientific truth will run after you. Continue to eat pork, and sooner or later the doctors will say that pork is the only food that is perfectly digestible. Continue to drink port, and sooner or later a man will arise in medical circles who will prove that port is the only certain safeguard against gout. The specialist may have told you to take your children to the seaside, but if you are only long enough in packing he will very likely have discovered that sea air is poison before you start. The best authorities may have told you, if your chest is weak, to make your bed in your back garden for a year. They may be telling you to grow your tulips in your bedroom the next year.—G. K. Chesterton in Illustrated London News.

Cured Hemorrhages of the Lungs.

"Several years since my lungs were so badly affected that I had many hemorrhages," writes A. M. Ake of Wood, Ind. "I took treatment with several physicians without any benefit. I then started to take Foley's Honey and Tar, and my lungs are now as sound as a bullet. I recommend it in advanced stages of lung trouble." Foley's Honey and Tar stops the cough and heals the lungs, and prevents serious results from a cold. Refuse substitutes. J. W. McCollum & Co.

Eased His Conscience.

An amusing story is related of Johns Hopkins. Honesty was evidently one of the fundamental traits of his character. On one occasion he was sent by his mother to borrow a flatiron of a neighbor. The good neighbor gave him the flatiron and at the same time offered him a piece of pie.

"No, thank you. I don't want any pie," said the red faced boy as he started home. Halfway there the pie and his conscience were too much for him. He wheeled about and knocked again at the neighbor's door, his face redder than ever. "I told you a story," he explained; "I did want that pie."

A Last Resort.

Her Opportunity.

Naybor—I saw your wife leaving home in something of a hurry this morning. Marryat—Yes; she's going into the shopping district to contract about $50 worth of debts. Naybor—My! Did she tell you that? Marryat—No, but I foolishly told her last night that I had that much left in bank.—Philadelphia Press.

Whooping Cough.

ROSSINI'S WATCH.

A Stranger Who Knew More About It Than the Composer.

Rossini, the composer, possessed a magnificent watch that his king had presented to him. It was a repeater and also a musical watch, for it played the maestro's prayer from "Moses In Egypt." But not until after he had owned it for six years did he understand it fully. Rossini took a boyish delight in showing it and making it play, and one day he did so while in a cafe.

A stranger who sat near was attracted by the music, and just as Rossini was going to put it back in his pocket he stepped up to him and said, "You have a very valuable watch there, sir, but I'll wager that you do not know all its capabilities."

Rossini, much surprised, said: "I have carried it now for six years in honor of my king. It has never varied one minute; it repeats the hour, quarter hour, tells the minutes and the day of the month and plays, as you have just heard, the prayer from 'Moses.'"

"And yet I insist," said the stranger smilingly, "that you do not know your watch wholly. I'll wager anything you like—your watch against 10,000 francs!"

"Oh, well, if you have 10,000 francs too many I'll take the bet," cried Rossini. "But now give me the proof of your assertion."

"Very well. The watch plays another piece of yours, master, and contains your portrait besides."

Speechless, Rossini saw that when the stranger touched a spring a lid flew back, disclosing his portrait, while at the same time it played "Di Tanti Palpiti," from "Tancred."

"Good gracious," he exclaimed, looking at his lost watch, "it is true! You have won the wager. But how could I know?"

The stranger laughed heartily and handed him back his treasure, saying:

"I am the maker of this watch, Michel Plivee. The wager was made in fun, but I am delighted that you, the great maestro, take such pleasure in my work."

Wiles of Animals.

The panther on the plains of Patagonia gets as near a herd of guanacos as it can, then lies down behind a bush on its back. It puts one paw up in the air, then another, then the third and fourth and after a bit all four at once. That seems curious to the guanacos, and they come close to investigate. Up jumps the panther and lights on the nearest one's back and breaks its neck. A fox up in Nova Scotia comes down to the bay of Fundy and goes jumping along the beach a couple of rods and back again, rising on its hind legs at each about face and waving its big tail in the air. The little flock of four or five Canada geese out on the water begin to wonder what can be the matter with the fox. They swim up into the shallow water to investigate, when in dashes the fox and grabs one by the neck. The men have taken advantage of this trick and have trained dogs to do as the fox does. For lack of a dog men themselves have ambled about on their hands and knees to attract the birds.

A Calendar.

To the modern world a calendar is merely a harmless necessary reminder of weeks and days to be hung up on New Year's day and consulted in dating letters throughout the year. It has no such mournful sound as "calendarium" had for the ancient Romans. The original calendar of their times was the money lender's account book, so called because interest was due from the debtor on the calends, or first day of each month. Seneca speaks of calendar as a word invented outside the course of nature on account of human greed.

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is in Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair users may look nice and smell nice but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of time."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

The President has been presented with a baseball pass. Now then, muckrakers, do your worst!

The Fernandina Hotel lot has been selected as the site for the proposed government building in that city.

The fact that Mr. Richard Mansfield has declared for Roosevelt for a third term is a sign that the third term idea is rather unpopular.

Sixteen million feet of lumber was shipped from Fernandina during the month of March. It's a record they may well feel proud of.

Chicago dispatches say that a change is needed to fill up the hole made when $178,000 was abstracted from the treasury not long ago.

"Missouri stands by the mule" says a Georgia exchange. But if she don't want "to be shown" she will stand near the head of the mule.

The Republicans of the Texas Legislature have unanimously agreed in resolutions that they are for Roosevelt for third term. There are only two of them.

If the earthquake was sent upon San Francisco for its sins, why didn't it destroy Abe Ruef and Schmitz instead of so many acres of improved real estate?

No wonder the Pennsylvania Republican ring beat the reformers in that State with the amount of boodle for grafting in the building of the new capitol gave them.

King Edward says he will not play golf with any young lady not twenty-one years old. Some young bridge player must have made several grand slams when King Edward was playing for a pound a point.

This is the season for the sporting news. There is where the news lies. From the reports sent out, it is difficult to see how any team in the league can lose a game, except through some fatal accident or catastrophe.

Over 90,000 boxes of oranges will have been shipped from the Pinellas groves when the present season ends. This means that more than a million dollars have changed hands this season as a result of the golden crop.

Lakeland will soon have a new opera house, one of which she will be proud. Judging from the plans that have been adopted upon it would be an ornament to a city larger than Lakeland. It is to be built of artificial stone, the lower floor being fitted up as store rooms.

Richmond is raising a monument to Edgar Allen Poe that will cost $5,000. There is no doubt if the living Poe could see this much money. Was it not the mother of Burns that remarked when the dead poet's admirers were raising a monument, that he had asked for bread and they gave him a stone? It is well to make amends in the absence of love and appreciation.

WHO IS TO BLAME?

If, as the railroad presidents and trust magnates are declaring, there is a period of business depression ahead, who is to blame for it? It must be charged to Republican management and policy, for that party has had full control of all departments of the government for the past ten years and if there is any needed legislation, or any bad laws that ought to have been repealed or amended, there has been ample time and opportunity to attend to it.

If monopolies of transporation and manufacturing have been encouraged and created, until of their own excesses they have defeated their own prosperity the Republican party is alone to blame.

If the tariff has fostered trusts, that are gorged on the profits of an exploited people, so that reaction and business depression are possible, who is to blame?

If the cost of living is inordinately high and workingmen are striking for higher wages, the reason is apparent and must be charged to the Republican policy of trust protection as the chief cause.

If the goose has been killed that has laid the golden eggs, by stuffing her with prosperity that was only intended for trusts and corporations to feed on, who is to blame?

If the wheat farmer finds that the price of his product is low and protected-trust prices are high, so that his profit is little, if any, will he blame his own skill as a husbandman and a kindly nature that has produced good crops or the tariff that has fostered trusts which are protected in charging increased profits and for which the Republican party is responsible?

There is one thing certain—that any prosperity that the farmer, the business man, or the workingman has enjoyed, who receives no protection or benefit from tariff or other monopoly, must work out his own salvation, for no system can be contrived that will help everyone without everyone paying his own share or even more than his fair share.

So while the heathen of Wall Street rage and the railroad magnates prophesy vain things, the much greater number of people must be satisfied with no help or protection from the Republican party who claims all the avenues of prosperity as of its own making. It behooves such not to be flustered with the croakings of the trust and corporation birds of evil omen, but to protect themselves by such political action as will abolish monopoly and install equal rights to all and special privileges to none.

Success declares him to be a pretty poor sort of a man who loses courage and fears to face the world just because he has made a mistake or a slip somewhere, because his business has failed, because his property has been swept away by some general disaster, or because of other trouble impossible for him to avert. This is the test of your manhood; how much is there left in you when everything outside is lost? If you lie down, throw up your hands, and acknowledge yourself worsted, there is not much in you. But if, with heart undaunted and face turned forward, you refuse to give up or lose faith in yourself, if you scorn to beat a retreat, you will show that the man left in you is bigger than your loss, and larger than any defeat.

The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

Since the publication of the Harriman letter of 1905 exposing some of the corporation magnates contributions to the Roosevelt campaign fund, it is much easier to understand why the Administration has been so liberal with the balance in the United States Treasury to help out the Wall Street frenzied financiers.

The Fernandina Record, edited by J. O. LaFontisee, comes to our table in a brand new form. It is a credit to the press of the State of Florida, and the citizens of Fernandina should not fail to give Editor LaFontisee their hearty support. Success to the editor and to The Record.

T. J. L. Brown, president of the Florida State Fair, will apply to the Legislature for an appropriation for the next two years. Much good has been derived from these annual fairs and we believe that the entire State has been benefited.

"I have been so busily occupied that I have had neither time nor inclination to even think about politics, State or National," remarked Senator Forsker a few days since. Has the Senator no fear of being assigned to the Ananias club?

Monday was the opening day for this season of the South Atlantic Baseball League. Jacksonville will represent this State in the national game this year with a strong team. We hope to see them capture the pennant this year.

Perhaps one reason the railroads object to lower passenger rates is that they will have more damage suits to pay, because they will carry and kill more people.

The Ponce de Leon celebration at St. Augustine was a grand success in every particular.

A RESCUE IN MIDAIR.

Perilous Feat of Climbing Up a Skyscraper Frame.

A LIFE WAS IN THE BALANCE.

Quick Wit and Strong Nerves at a Critical Moment In a Building Accident—Why One Man Has a Warm Spot In His Heart For Our Sailors.

"I was working on a steel framed skyscraper in one of our large coast cities on a July day some years ago," said the man who told of the exciting, almost tragic incident. "We had reached the eighth story, and, as the floors were somewhat more than ten feet apart, the top beams were well up in the air.

"One forenoon I was inside an elevator well between the seventh and eighth stories fastening the guide to the sheet steel wall. One of the other sides was also covered with steel, but the other two were open.

"At 11:30 we reached a set of holes six feet above the seventh floor. To get at these I was obliged to sit upon a board supported by two tall wooden horses standing on planks laid across the shaft and forming a loose scaffolding. Through its openings I could look down clear to the basement, more than seventy feet below. Behind me, on the opposite side of the shaft, were lashed short perpendicular ladders, up and down which the men were constantly passing, for the elevator well was the main thoroughfare of the huge steel skeleton.

"Noon struck. In less than a minute the ladders were covered with men climbing down. There were a lot of 12 o'clock fellows on the job who would rather leave a bolt half driven than work a second overtime. A gang right over me had just put a heavy steel header in place on the edge of the shaft. Two or three bolts had been driven into one end, but the other was as yet unfastened. It would have taken only a few minutes at the most to make everything secure, but at the first stroke of the hour they dropped their tools and hurried to dinner.

"A sudden strong hot wind swept through the frame, making the loose planks rattle. Something grated above my head. I looked up and for a moment my blood stopped running. The gust had struck the nicely balanced header with just enough force to make it totter. Slowly its loose end swung downward; then it lurched quickly and slid into the well.

"As it dropped it just cleared my head. It sheared through the middle of the scaffolding as if the thick planks were rotten paper. Down it shot, gaining momentum with every foot, its lower end making the opposite wall clean of ladders.

"Smash! Bang! Grind! All was over in a few seconds. Dust rose, and when the turmoil had subsided there was I sitting on my board with seventy-five feet of empty air between me and the debris at the bottom of the well.

"The falling header had taken out the middle of the scaffolding, leaving only the side planks on which the horses stood. The shock had moved one of these planks two or three inches, so that a leg of the horse upon it just overhung the edge. A little more and the horse would topple into the shaft, taking its support from the board on which I sat and hurling me down to a frightful death.

"I knew that I had been seen and my peril understood. The building was on a crowded business street, and the crash of the falling beam had attracted the attention of hundreds of people. A great silent throng soon blocked all traffic. I could see their upturned faces and an occasional pointed finger. Their very stillness terrified me, for I knew that it was my mortal danger that held them spellbound.

"But there was one in that throng who did something more than sympathize. He was a sailor on shore leave from a United States battleship in the harbor. Running into a store, he obtained a hundred feet of new, strong rope, looped it about his shoulders and began to clamber toward me. As there were no ladders left, he was forced to swarm up the steel uprights.

"At first, however, I did not see him, for close to me something happened that drove everything else from my mind.

"A barely perceptible movement fastened my eyes on the leg of the horse. Painfully scrutinizing the spot where it rested, I saw that the plank was being pushed slowly but surely along by the lateral pressure of the other legs. I watched it, fascinated. It was only a question of a very short time when I should be hurled into the pit.

"Suddenly, three stories below, I saw a man climbing toward me. He was dressed in a blue suit and a flat cap edged with white letters. A coil of rope hung round his neck. Up he came like a monkey, arms, legs, hands, feet, all doing their part. Would he be in time to save me? He was a swarthy Spanish looking fellow, not very tall, with black mustache and good natured face. Two stories below me his cap dropped off, revealing his thick curly hair. Several times he slipped back slightly, and I noticed the dull red smears on his clothing from the freshly painted beams.

"I watched him tensely. He glanced up and caught my eye.

"'Cheer up, mate!' he exclaimed. 'I'll have this rope round you in a jiffy.'

"Another slight movement of the plank. I groaned. The bluejacket heard me, and it stimulated him to do his utmost. It was a race between him and the retreating wood. On his lithe muscles my life depended.

"The leg now hung on its support by the merest fraction of its width. It might slip off at any second. I no longer saw the sailor. The sound of his climbing and his heavy breathing came to me, but I did not dare to turn my head.

"I closed my lids for an instant. When I opened them, the leg was entirely off the plank. The horse tipped, and the board under me tilted downward.

"I gave one last despairing glance at the steel wall and at the dolly suspended by its chain. Could those small rusted links support 180 pounds more? The thought flashed into my brain. There was no time for debating. As the board dropped from under me I flung out my hands and twined my fingers round the chain with the grip of death.

"Over the top of the wall, four feet above, appeared the bluejacket's anxious face.

"'Quick!' I screamed.

"'Catch hold!' shouted he, and down on my head dropped a loop of rope. As I clutched it with one hand a link in the chain pulled out, and the fifty pound bar shot down to the bottom of the well. Two minutes later I lay safe on the working platform above. Then everything turned black.

"When I came to myself I was lying on a bench in the tool shanty. One of my friends was dousing me with cold water, while others were grouped round, but the sailor, to whose coolness and dexterity I owed my life, was nowhere to be seen. He had fastened the rope under my arms and lowered me down insensible. Then he had descended, picked up his cap and disappeared.

"I never see a bluejacket without thinking of the one who saved my life, and that is why I have always had a warm place in my heart for the sailors of the United States navy."—Youth's Companion.

Good Judgment

Is the essential characteristic of men and women. Invaluable to good business men and necessary to housewives. A woman shows good judgment when she buys White's Cream Vermifuge for her baby—the best worm medicine ever offered to mothers. Many, indeed, are the sensible mothers who write, expressing their gratitude for the good health of their children, which they owe to the use of White's Cream Vermifuge. Sold by W. M. Johnson.

Practical Sympathy.

Dr. Edward Everett Hale called upon the editor of a paper in a small New England town. In the course of conversation the editor told how he was worrying about his wife, how he had sent her to the country for her health, how she was growing worse rather than better, how his heart urged him to go to her and how the necessity of grinding out his editorials day by day was keeping him from her bedside. Dr. Hale returned to his hotel and called for writing materials. After several hours he returned to the editor and threw on his desk a pile of manuscripts.

"There!" he said. "Go and see your wife. I've scribbled off enough articles of contemporaneous human interest to feed your paper for a week."—Woman's Home Companion.

A Satirical Picture in a Church.

There is probably only one church in Britain which contains a satirical picture. It is the little church of South Brent, in Somersetshire. On three oaken pews are carved pictures which were intended to satirize the greed of a certain religious dignitary at Glastonbury. This ecclesiastic is represented in the first picture as a fox dressed in robes and miter and holding a crook in his right paw. In the second picture the fox has been manacled by a flock of geese, and in the third the birds have revenged themselves on their foe by hanging him from the branch of a tree.

GREATEST AGONY YET TO COME

Famine In China Hasn't Yet Reached the Crisis.

Washington, April 9.—To correct an erroneous report that has been given general circulation with harmful results, the Red Cross has issued the following statement in regard to the Chinese famine:

"The famine in China is unprecedented in severity and the period of greatest agony is yet to come. Many weeks must pass before there will be relief from new crops, and hundreds of thousands, yes millions, are today kept alive through the contributions of the Americans who have sent their donations to the Red Cross at Washington and the Christian Herald of New York. These two organizations have furnished over two-thirds of all relief supplies sent to China to relieve the starving millions. The large amount of money and shipments of supplies already made have only partly relieved the situation, and while hundreds of thousands of lives have been saved, hundreds of thousands must die unless large additional sums of money and large shipments of food are immediately provided.

"The following cablegram received by the editor of The Christian Herald from the editor of the North China News, terrible as it may seem, speaks only the truth:

"'Shanghai, China, April 7, 1907.—Klopech, New York: Approaching period of severest pinch. Authenticated instances of corpses exhumed; cannibalism. Foreign relief working effectively, maintaining whole districts unharvest.'"

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—MRS. SARAH A. COLE, 140 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by all druggists.

Attack Made on Roosevelt.

New York, April 9.—An attack was made on President Roosevelt at Sunday's meeting of the Central Federated Union by Albert Abrams, of the Press Feeders' union, on account of his letter to Representative Sherman in which the president is quoted as saying that Mr. Harriman was as undesirable citizen as Moyer, Haywood or Debs. Abrams is a socialist and a member of the Moyer-Haywood conference, composed of labor unionists who are collecting money for the defense fund. A resolution was carried directing the secretary to write to President Roosevelt asking him to withdraw his remarks in reference to Moyer and Haywood.

Wall Paper WWas Poisoned.

Chicago, April 9.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Evansville, Ind., says that Mrs. Zachariah Watson, the third wife of a farmer in Posey county, Indiana, died a few days ago and Sunday it was discovered that her death was due to the wall paper on the walls and ceiling of the parlor that she had cleaned two days before taken ill. Physicians believe she was poisoned, but were unable to ascertain the cause until the wall paper was examined and found to be impregnated with virulent poison. Watson's first two wives died in the same way, their deaths occurring one and two years ago.

Robbed of $35,000.

Cincinnati, O., April 9.—Information has leaked out in police circles, that while sojourning in New York, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cox, of this city, were victims of sneak thieves and that the light-fingered crooks carried off a large number of jewels and ornaments belonging to Mrs. Cox, valued at $35,000. Although the jewels were stolen over two weeks ago and the police of Cincinnati and New York have been working assidously on the case, they have, it is said, so far, failed to find the slightest trace of the treasures.

The Richest Man In the World.

The richest man in the world cannot have his kidneys replaced nor live without them, so it is important not to neglect these organs. If Foley's Kidney Cure is taken at the first sign of danger, the symptoms will disappear and your health will be restored, as it strengthens and builds up these organs as nothing else will. Oscar Bowman, Lebanon, Ky., writes: "I have used Foley's Kidney Cure and take great pleasure in stating it cured me permanently of kidney disease, which certainly would have cost me my life." J. W. McCollum & Co.

To Be Guest at White House.

New York, April 9.—Four distinguished Frenchmen, who came here to attend the dedication of the Carnegie institute at Pittsburg this week, arrived here Monday on the steamer LaTouraine. The visitors are Baron d'Estournelles de Constant; D. L. C. Enlart, director of the French Trocadero museum; J. Rais, secretary to the chamber of deputies and Paul Doumer, ex-president of the French senate. Baron d'Estournelles de Constant is to be the guest of President Roosevelt at the White House.

Cured of Rheumatism.

Mr. Wm. Henry of Chattanooga, Tenn., had rheumatism in his left arm. "The strength seemed to have gone out of the muscles so that it was useless for work," he says. "I applied Chamberlain's Pain Balm and wrapped the arm in flannel at night, and to my relief I found that the pain gradually left me and the strength returned. In three weeks the rheumatism had disappeared and has not since returned." If troubled with rheumatism try a few applications of Pain Balm. NERVOUS WOMEN

Vinol Restored the Health of Miss Blair, President of Sophomore Club.

Miss Rose Blair, president Sophomore Club, Kansas City, writes: "Last spring I was all run down, nervous and irritable. I lost my appetite and could not sleep. I tried many medicines without benefit. Your cod liver preparation, Vinol, was recommended, and it certainly worked wonders for me. It was delicious and not at all like the greasy cod liver oil and emulsions I was used to. Vinol gave me a hearty appetite and restored me to perfect health and strength."

Vinol cures conditions like this because it contains all of the curative medicinal elements found in cod liver oil without a drop of the useless oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and tonic iron added, and strengthens every organ in the body.

We ask every run-down, nervous, debilitated, aged or weak person in Gainesville, and every person suffering from stubborn colds, hanging-on coughs or bronchial troubles to try Vinol on our guarantee to return money if it fails.—W. M. Johnson, Druggist.

NOTE.—While we are sole agents for Vinol in Gainesville, it is now for sale at the leading drug store in nearly every town and city in the country. Look for the Vinol agency in your town.

THE NEWBERRY ELECTION.

First Officials of That Progressive Town Elected on Monday.

Newberry, one of the most progressive towns in the county, held its first election Monday, with the following result:

For mayor, Justice E. T. Henderson; for marshal, H. L. Smith; for alderman, C. A. Neel, Henry Tucker, T. M. Kincaid, Geo. W. Livingston, W. H. Sealey; for clerk, Arthur Read.

Newberry is now starting out on the road to progress, and is destined, under the new regime, to become one of the most important towns in this section of the State. The officers elected are all good men, men of energy and integrity, and the eyes of the whole people of the county will be centered upon her as far as her development is concerned.

Mayor Henderson is a good man, full of determination, and with a progressive spirit. The board of aldermen are as energetic a set of five men as could be found in any town the size of Newberry. The marshal is a man who will do his duty as he sees it—and he usually sees it right. Mr. Read, the clerk, is also a progressive man, and in all the future of Newberry looks prosperous.

Thirty-eight votes were cast at this election.

JUSTICE COLMAN'S COURT.

Interesting Session of the Court, Where Woman Was Involved.

Justice Colman had an interesting session of his court Monday afternoon, when Bessie Scipie, colored, of Fairbanks, was arraigned upon a charge of vagrancy and lewdness.

After hearing the evidence in the case Justice Colman took the matter under advisement, and his decision may be rendered at any time.

The Street Sprinkler.

The street sprinkler was placed in commission for the first time in several weeks Tuesday, being necessitated by the extreme dusty streets and high winds, which made it almost impossible to go upon the streets. The sprinkler came as a great relief, and the Street Committee was complimented for its action in placing it on.

Superintendent Miller of the waterworks states that the sprinkler would have been in commission all summer had it not been for the extreme scarcity of water, caused by the continued droughs.
